

Lambda Epsilon Omega HBCU Virtual College Fair

SEPTEMBER 18, 2021 10AM

Welcome

Greetings

Overview of events for the day

10:00AM "Meet Me on the Yard"

The Experience

An up close and personal look into college life...students who are currently enrolled or have recently graduated from a Historically Black College and University (HBCU) and/or a Predominantly White Institution (PWI) will share their experiences regarding campus life prior to and during the COVID-19 pandemic.

10:00AM "Getting to the Money"

Financial Aid and Scholarship

While the financial aid process can seem confusing and overwhelming to students and parents, it is also a key component of many students' path to matriculation. Join us for a Financial Aid Awareness Workshop full of tips and resources that will prepare you for the most important investment of your life.

11:00AM "Mama I Made It!"

The College Admissions and Essay Readiness Workshop

This workshop will provide a jumpstart to your college and scholarship process. In this robust one-hour workshop, information shared will help students become acclimated to the college admission process. Our Expert Advisor will help you unlock your key ingredients, properly formulate your essay, and zero in on the crucial components that admission officers look for in an applicant.

12:00PM "Meet Me on the Yard Virtual College Fair"

The virtual college fair will provide a platform for students and parents to freely engage with different college representatives in a safe environment. When you enter the breakout rooms, recruiters and alumni will share the history and renowned programs of some of the leading HBCU's in the South and on the East Coast.

2PM: Closing Remarks

Acknowledgements will be extended.

Prize winners will be announced.
